

Roundtable on Forced Displacement and Migration related Research

Wednesday, May 17, 2023, 10:30-01:00pm (followed by lunch)
Bonner Universitätsforum, Heussallee 18-24, 53113 Bonn

Program

TIME	ITEM
10:10-10:30	Arrival & registration
10:30-10:40	Goals of today & program Dr. Sandra Gilgan, University of Bonn
10:40-10:50	Welcome note Prof. Dr. Conrad Schetter, Director of the Bonn International Centre for Conflict Studies (BICC)
10:50-11:50	Introductions by all participants of the Roundtable <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • My name is... and I work at/ with... • I am doing research in/ on/ with ... • The most compelling question I am currently working on is...
11:50-12:05	Information on Forced Displacement and Migration Conference in 2024 Maarit Thiem, Bonn International Centre for Conflict Studies (BICC)
12:05-12:10	Distribute to world café tables Everybody has the opportunity to engage at two tables.
12:10-12:30 ROUND 1	Tables: (1) Networks and networking: looking at the neighbourhood in research and beyond (involvement in..., expectations towards roundtable and follow-up, added value of regular exchange, topic I want to bring in...) Host: Maarit Thiem, Bonn International Centre for Conflict Studies (BICC)
12:30-12:50 ROUND 2	(2) Strategy: looking from above at research in Bonn and its impact (portfolio and location advantage in Bonn, strategic positioning, plans and development in my area, ...) Host: Dr. Sandra Gilgan, University of Bonn (3) Joint expertise: looking at concrete possibilities to work together (interdisciplinary exchange, low-threshold discussions around migration, research and teaching collaborations, ...) Hosts: Dr. Lena Laube & Dr. des. Maria Ullrich, Forum Internationale Wissenschaft, University of Bonn
12:50-13:00	Closing world café, brief outlook
13:00-14:00	Lunch and time to walk along the world café tables, look at the results, add comments, or relax with good food and further talks.